WANT REVENGE.

Indiana Farmers Will Arrest Reckless Autoists.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—To secure revenge for the deaths caused by reckless automobilists going to and from Chicago through Lake county, Ind., last year, and to protect themselves during this year the farmers of that district have banded themselves into what they call the "Lake County Protective Association." The original intention of the association was to rid the county of horse thieves and by extending their plans to include automobilists, they have classed the later with horse thieves and say they will treat reckless chauffeurs as such. The association at a meeting last night voted to secure the arrest of any person in charge of a motor vehicle, who violates the speed law.

The association will post guards along the highways used by auto scorchers, and plans to deal harshly with them. Four persons were killed along those roads last summer by speeding autos and many persons were injured.

COURT OF REVIEW TROUBLES

Tillman's Illness Assigned Cause for Adjournment, But Real Reason Was Democrats Refused to Disclose Position on Court of Review Feature.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The Senate committee on inter-state commerce adjourned today until next Tuesday without taking a vote on a bill or having considered an amendment for a judicial review of the inter-state commerce commission. The committee has agreed that important amendments will not be voted on until Friday of next week. Ostensibly the committee adjourned on account of the sudden illness of Tillman and because Cullom will return from Florida next week to cast his vote in the committee, but the real reason for adjournment is believed to be the attitude of certain Democratic members in not disclosing their position on the court of review feature. The committee voted six to five to increase the inter-state commerce commission from five to nine members.

GAIN MILLIONS THROUGH UNLAWFUL METHODS

TRANSPORTATION COMPANY FLOATS BONDS

Sensational Revelations Regarding Transactions in High Finance Made in Suit Against Cincinnati's "Electric Mule."

WITH $10,000 $5,000,000 IN STOCKS AND BONDS FLOATED

CHARGES ARE MADE IN SUIT FILED IN UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT BY ATTORNEYS FOR RUDOLPH KLEYBOLTE, CINCINNATI BROKER, AGAINST MIAMI & ERIE TRANSPORTATION COMPANY, ALLEGING CLEVELAND FINANCIERS FLOATED $5,000,000 IN STOCKS AND BONDS WITH ONLY $10,000. ACTUAL CAPITAL.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 16.—Sensational charges are made in a suit filed in the United States Circuit Court today by attorneys for Rudolph Kleybolte, the Cincinnati banker seeking an investigation of the Miami & Erie Transportation Company, known as the "Electric Mule." The charge is that financiers of Cleveland floated $2,000,000 in bonds and $3,000,000 in stock upon the sole strength of $10,000 paid up capital stock in that company, and that these stocks and bonds being placed upon the market were taken in good faith by hundreds of innocent investors in Cincinnati and elsewhere.

Prominent Men Defendants.

The defendants who are thus accused are William H. Lamprecht, Moses J. Mandelbaum and Leopold Wood, said to be partners as M. J. Mandelbaum & Co.; Edward J. Tilton, R. E. Rousefield, George M. Chandler, Henry W. Wing, Myron R. Wilson, Edward Moore, H. A. Everett, F. T. Pomeroy, Ralph A. Herman, John F. Harper, Warren S. Hayden, Charles Paek, Will Christie and John R. Nutt.

Banker Kleybolte brings his action on behalf of all the creditors of the company, including the holders of bonds.

Present Stock to Themselves.

The pith of the action is found in the allegation that these defendants presented to themselves $2,990,000 of the capital stock of the Miami & Erie Company, which was issued to them as paid up stock, but for which they made no payments, and upon the strength of which the company caused $2,000,000 in bonds to issue and to contract other debts.

The petition asks that these defendants be compelled to pay par for that stock and that the proceeds be applied to the debts of the company. There is pending in the Cleveland courts a suit to assess the liabilities against the stockholders, on whom the original holders are alleged to have unloaded.

Attorney-General Ellis has also brought action to oust the concern from the canal banks. The bill seeks to set aside the contract between Lamprecht and associates of the company, insofar as it exempts these defendants from paying for the $2,990,000 stock and seeks to require them to pay for the same to satisfy the debts of the company, which with the bonds amount to $2,000,000.

Execution Returned Unsatisfied.

Mr. Kleybolte alleges he has obtained judgment on thirteen bonds of the company for $3300; has issued execution, which he alleges was returned unsatisfied, and that his investigation shows the company has debts amounting to $1,500,000, and that its assets will not realize more than $200,000. He also asks that these defendants be required to turn into court the $216,000 they received for the sale of bonds and that the court appoint a receiver to collect these funds from the defendants for the benefit of the creditors.

CROWE NOT GUILTY

Supposed Kidnaper of Young Cudahy is Acquitted.

JURY OUT FIFTEEN HOURS

Notorious Pat Crowe, Charged With Kidnaping Young Son of Millionaire Cudahy for Ransom Five Years Ago, is Freed of Charge.

OMAHA, Feb. 16.—The jury in the trial of Pat Crowe, charged with the robbery of Edward A. Cudahy, the Omaha packer, of $25,000 in connection with the kidnaping of the latter's son five years ago, this afternoon, after fifteen hours' deliberation, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

The kidnaping of Eddie Cudahy, December 19, 1900, and his release upon the payment by his father of $25,000 ransom created a great sensation, and the search for the kidnapers was stimulated at the time by the offer of a reward of $50,000 by Mr. Cudahy.

It was the belief of authorities that Crowe and James Callahan were the guilty parties, but no trace of them could be found until about a year ago, when Callahan was arrested. He was identified by young Cudahy as one of his captors, but was released on trial, as it could not be shown that he received any of the money, and there was at that time no law making the kidnaping of a person over 10 years of age a crime.

Last October Crowe was arrested in Butte, Mont., and was put on trial February 7. There was no evidence to positively identify Crowe as one of the kidnapers.

Crowe was recently indicted in Council Bluffs, with others, on a charge of holding up a street car.

To Be Tried Again.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Feb. 16.—Pat Crowe, the prisoner, is here, and will be arraigned tomorrow on the charge of street robbery. He declares himself confident of acquittal. An accomplice named Levi is also in custody.
